Civil Aviation Amendment Bill (No 2)

Government Bill

Explanatory note

General policy statement

The purpose of this Bill is to enhance aviation safety by making better provision for the regulation of medical certification. The Civil Aviation Act 1990 provides the statutory framework for regulating aviation safety. Rules made under the Act contain more detailed legislative requirements. The powers and responsibilities of the Director are central to the Act and the rules.

There are problems for aviation medical certification under the present legislation. Although the Director is responsible for ensuring that only medically fit persons are able to fly, the Director has no actual legislative role in the medical certification system, apart from being empowered to conduct special medical assessments under the rules.

The present legislation has proved to be seriously deficient because the Director has insufficient powers. Aviation safety could be compromised if the present highly decentralised system continues.

The Bill will rectify this problem by empowering the Director to—

- designate aviation medical examiners, monitor their performance, and revoke designations in the case of poor performance;
- carry out assessments of reports related to medical certification;
- issue, suspend, and revoke medical certificates;
- require aviation licence holders, such as pilots and air traffic controllers, to undertake examinations and tests related to medical certification, if it is necessary in the interests of safety:

• issue directives to examiners on aviation medical matters.

The Bill will also validate previous decisions of the Director relating to medical certification.

Clause by clause analysis

Clause 1 relates to the Title of the Bill. The principal Act amended by this Bill is the Civil Aviation Act 1990.

Clause 2 relates to the commencement of the Bill.

Clause 3 specifies the purpose of the Bill. The purpose of the Bill is to amend the principal Act to enhance the safety of civil aviation by improving the regulation of medical certification, and to validate existing medical certificates and certification decisions.

Clause 4 inserts a new Part 2A into the principal Act, which sets out rules governing the issue of medical certificates, and validates existing medical certificates and certification decisions.

Clause 5 amends the principal Act by inserting a new offence provision. Every person who exercises any privilege that requires a person to hold a medical certificate commits an offence if that person does not hold a current medical certificate, knows or has reason to believe that his or her medical fitness no longer meets the required medical standard, or knows or has reason to believe that his or her ability to act safely is, or is likely to be, impaired. Every person who commits an offence is liable to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or a fine not exceeding $10,000.

Clause 6 amends the principal Act to require the Director to undertake medical examinations and to issue medical certificates in accordance with Part 2A.

Clause 7 specifies that consequential amendments to the principal Act are set out in the Schedule.

Clause 8 consequentially amends the Civil Aviation Rules by revoking and amending specified rules.

1990 No 98
2 Commencement
This Act comes into force on the day after the date on which it receives the Royal assent.

3 Purpose
The purpose of this Act is to amend the principal Act by incorporating provisions that—
(a) enhance the safety of civil aviation by improving the regulation of medical certification; and
(b) validate existing medical certificates and certification decisions.

4 New Part 2A Inserted
The principal Act is amended by inserting, after Part 2, the following Part:

"Part 2A
"Medical certification"

"27A Interpretation
"(1) In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires,—

"applicant means a person who has applied for a medical certificate; and includes a licence holder who has reapplied for a medical certificate

"aviation examiner means a person designated by the Director under section 276(2)(b)

"examiner means a person designated by the Director as a medical examiner or an aviation examiner

"licence holder means a person who—

"(a) holds an aviation document or is a student pilot; and

"(b) is required under the rules to hold a current medical certificate

"medical advisory panel means the panel appointed by the Director to advise on aviation medical matters under section 271.

"medical certificate means a certificate issued by the Director under this Part to an applicant or licence holder

"medical examiner means a registered medical practitioner designated by the Director under section 276(2)(a)

"medically unfit means the existence of any incapacity, risk of incapacity, or characteristic that interferes with or may interfere with the safe exercise of the privileges of a licence holder.

"(2) To avoid doubt, a medical certificate is not an aviation document.

"27B Medical certificate required

"(1) A licence holder must carry the appropriate current medical certificate whenever exercising any privilege to which the medical certificate relates.

"(2) Every licence holder must produce his or her medical certificate whenever required to do so by the Director.

"(3) Except where required by the rules to produce a medical certificate immediately, a licence holder complies with the requirement in subsection (2) if he or she produces the medical certificate within 24 hours of the Director’s request at a place specified by the Director.

"(4) Every person commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,000 who fails to comply with subsection (2) or subsection (3).

"27C Director to issue medical certificate

"(1) The Director may issue a medical certificate to an applicant with any conditions, restrictions, or endorsements.

"(2) The Director must not issue a medical certificate if the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that an applicant—

"(a) is medically unfit; or

"(b) would be medically unfit in the absence of any conditions, restrictions, or endorsements placed on the medical certificate by the Director.

"(3) Before issuing a medical certificate, the Director—

"(a) must have regard to the report of the medical examiner and such other information that may be relevant; and

"(b) may require the applicant, at the applicant’s expense, to undertake any other tests, examinations, or re-examinations, or provide any medical information, as the Director reasonably considers necessary to assess the medical fitness of the applicant.

"(4) The Director must maintain a current register of medical certificates issued under this section.
"27D Changes in medical conditions

“(1) If a licence holder suspects or becomes aware of any change in his or her medical condition that indicates that he or she may be medically unfit, the licence holder—

“(a) must advise the Director of the change as soon as practicable; and

“(b) may not exercise the privileges of the licence holder.

“(2) If an examiner or operator suspects or becomes aware of any change in the medical fitness of a licence holder, being a change that has made or may make the person medically unfit, the examiner or operator must advise both the licence holder and the Director of the change as soon as practicable.

“(3) If a registered medical practitioner has reasonable grounds to believe that a person is a licence holder and suspects or becomes aware of any change in the medical fitness of the licence holder that could adversely affect the medical fitness of the licence holder, the registered medical practitioner must advise the Director of the change.

"27E Medical examination, report, and disclosure

“(1) Before the Director issues a medical certificate, an applicant must have a medical examination by a medical examiner who must forward his or her report to the Director.

“(2) The Director may, by written notice, require any applicant or licence holder, for the purpose of determining whether or not the applicant or licence holder is medically unfit, to disclose or authorise the disclosure of any information relevant to his or her medical fitness.

"27F Expiry of medical certificate

Despite the imminent expiry of an existing medical certificate, the Director may, on receiving an application from an existing licence holder for a new medical certificate, grant an extension of up to 60 days of the grant of the existing medical certificate.

(b) may designate, subject to any conditions that the Director may specify, 1 or more persons to be aviation examiners for a period of no longer than 3 years.

"(3) The Director must maintain a current list of examiners.

"(4) The Director may renew a designation as an examiner for 1 or more periods, each of which may not exceed 3 years.

"(5) The Director may, by notice in the Gazette, issue general directions for conducting examinations of the medical fitness of applicants and licence holders, and reporting the results of those examinations to the Director; and the directions must be—
(a) notified in writing to examiners; and
(b) incorporated in a medical manual prepared by the Director.

"(6) Nothing in this Act or the rules may be deemed to constitute an employment relationship or a contractual relationship of any kind between the Director and any examiner.

"27H Cancelling designation of examiners
(1) The Director may cancel a person’s designation under section 276(2) if the person—
(a) fails to comply with—

(ii) any direction that the Director has issued; or
(iii) any selection criterion that the Director has established; or
(b) fails to advise the Director, as soon as practicable, of any change in the medical fitness of a licence holder that indicates that the licence holder is medically unfit; or
(c) asks the Director to cancel his or her designation; or
(d) fails to discharge satisfactorily his or her duties as an examiner.
“(2) Before cancelling a designation, the Director must—
“(a) give the examiner written notice of the matters that constitute the grounds for cancellation; and
“(b) give the examiner a reasonable opportunity to make representations explaining why his or her designation should not be cancelled.

“(3) If the Director cancels a designation, the Director must give the examiner written notice of the cancellation that sets out the grounds for the cancellation.

“27I Investigation of medical fitness
“(1) The Director may, by written notice, require any licence holder, at the licence holder’s expense, to undertake any tests, examinations, or re-examinations, or provide any medical information, at any time before the expiry of his or her medical certificate, if the Director has reasonable grounds to believe that the licence holder—
“(a) may be medically unfit; or
“(b) has obtained his or her medical certificate fraudulently.

“(2) The Director may, by written notice, require any licence holder, at the Authority’s expense, to undertake any tests, examinations, or re-examinations, or provide any medical information, at any time before the expiry of his or her medical certificate if the Director—

“(5) If necessary for ensuring the safety of civil aviation or for enabling an operator to ensure compliance with the operator’s obligations under this Act or the rules, the Director may inform the operator—
“(a) that the medical certificate of any person for whom the operator is responsible has been revoked or suspended;
“(b) of the duration of any suspension of any medical certificate;
“(c) that the medical certificate of any person for whom the operator is responsible has had any conditions, restrictions, or endorsements placed on it.

“(6) The Director may revoke a medical certificate and suspend the aviation document to which it relates if a licence holder fails to comply with a demand under section 27(1) or (2) or (3) within a reasonable period of time.

“(7) Any person holding a medical certificate may, by notice in writing to the Director, surrender his or her medical certificate.

have been if this Act had been in force at the time that the decision was made and the decision had been authorised under this Act.

“(2) If any proceedings have been commenced before 20 February 2001, nothing in subsection (1) affects the rights of any person under any judgment of a court given in those proceedings or any judgment given on appeal from that judgment.
